Institutional Distinctiveness

The key distinctive of the College is its location advantage. From the inception of recognition of this Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Godda has been concentrating her attention to spray legal awareness in the society in order to follow the constitutional ethos to be implemented into Toto. A Civics society pertains values of rule of law and equality before law for maintenance of generalized principle to be adopted in society functioning. Our soul Motto, mission and vision have been derived from the very ethics to solve the remote test person living marginalized with utter distresses. Show, the institute has given thrust importance and priority for uplifting the condition of commoners lives with basic amenities of minimum aptitude full stop in our society.

Addiction to alcoholism, anti-women attitude, male chauvinism, biased ideologies, lack of rationalistic, pseudo costliest demagogy- in a single word totally in humanitarian qualities equipped collection group the apparently apparent appearing as knowing but basically sub human instinctive qualities have to be in wrist with human attitude, commonness feeling aptitude enhancement sacrifice for others' causes not self-centred mentally are the basic qualities for good social order building. About one decade ago the environment surrounding the institute was in superlative degree of the adjective bad, but today the situation has been totally changed because this institution entirely dedicates for enhancement of awareness for lawful society embodiment. Massive plantation has been initiated in the campus.
